

Olivia Lunny

Canadian singer/songwriter Olivia Lunny delivers an infectious breed of indie-pop, distinct and charged with incredible depth. After taking up guitar and writing her first song at the age of 12, the Winnipeg native soon ascended to national fame when she won on Season 2 of Canadian music competition series The Launch, where she was mentored by Jann Arden. Olivia also earned a Western Canadian Music Award nomination for Pop Artist of the Year when she was 17.

Don Amero

An engaging storyteller, singer-songwriter and performer, 3x Juno Award nominee Don Amero has been tirelessly touring, performing and speaking across Canada for the last decade, earning the respect and attention of the Canadian Music industry and fans alike. He has a proven ability to effortlessly and genuinely connect with his audience.

Tanika Charles

Formerly known as the best kept secret in soul music, Toronto-based singer Tanika Charles has become a staple of the scene both at home and abroad. The 2x Juno Award nominated and 2x Polaris Prize long-listed singer continues to win audiences over one stream, one Shazam and one encore at a time.

Adaline

Prolific alt pop artist/composer Adaline has had over 80 songs featured in multiple scenes on Grey's Anatomy, 90210, Lost Girl, The Fosters, Flashpoint, Wynonna Earp and The Samaritan starring Samuel L. Jackson. She recently released Dear Illusion, praised by Canadian Beats as "one of the greatest Canadian pop albums in recent years".

Kevin McIntyre

Kevin most recently appeared in The Addams Family (Dry Cold Productions), Stars of David (Winnipeg Jewish Theatre), and Les Miserables (Rainbow Stage). He also directed Forever Plaid for Rainbow Stage in 2008. Select theatre credits include the Canadian Premiere of Miss Saigon, and the Canadian National Tour of Les Miserables.

Jodie Borle

Jazz singer Jodie Borlé is a member of the Winnipeg Singers and the Very Groovy Things – a Mamas & the Papas tribute band recently profiled in the Winnipeg Free Press. She sings the anthems regularly at Manitoba Moose (AHL) games and has also sung at Winnipeg Jets (NHL) games

Garrett Neiles

Winnipeg Performer, Songwriter, and Recording Artist; Won Entertainer of the Year in 2018 as per Winnipeg Nightlife Awards; Been on the Winnipeg scene for seven years; Currently working on first studio EP; Have shared a stage with greats such as Burton Cummings and Harlequin. Garrett has been playing music professionally for almost a decade.

Doc Walker

With over 20 Top 10 singles in total, Doc Walker is one of the most recognized Canadian country acts of the past two decades. The group has received multiple Canadian Country Music Awards, including Fans' Choice, Group or Duo of the Year, CMT Video of the Year, Single of the Year, and Country Music Program or Special of the Year.

Andrea Macasaet

Born and raised in Winnipeg, Andrea Macasaet is a proud Filipino actor making her Broadway debut with SIX The Musical at The Brooks Atkinson Theatre. Andrea previously starred in SIX at Chicago Shakespeare Theater, American Repertory Theater, The Citadel Theatre and the Ordway Center of Performing Arts. Her Canadian credits include Heathers: The Musical.

Roman Clarke

Roman Clarke is a Winnipeg pop and R&B/soul singer and multi-instrumentalist. His debut solo album SCORCHER was released last year. It's all about the music, and for Roman, it always will be. Especially the art of song craft, which is both his passion and obsession. His prolific catalogue reflects his hardworking prairie roots.

Lisa Windsor

Introduced as Winnipeg's best kept secret, Lisa is making quite a name for herself belting out everything from Soul to Country and everything in between. Lisa has opened for and performed with Kenny Shields from Streetheart, Loverboy and had the pleasure of writing and singing the theme song for The Craig Ferguson Show.

Emma Cloney

A compassionate Labour and Delivery nurse and a passionate professional musician, both drawing from the same creative well. Emma Cloney has been a nurse with St. Boniface Hospital since 2014 and a singer-songwriter for a great many years more. She is a mother of two, as well as one half of the indie-folk duo The New Customs.

David Grenon

An artist who sets himself apart by his versatility, David Grenon is active on many different professional stages, from the pop-rock scene to the classical world, as a soloist and as part of different groups and productions. Since 2008, he has been employed as the First Full Time Vocalist (Reg Force) within the Canadian Armed Forces.

Travis Braschuk

A St. Paul's High School alumni, Winnipeg born Travis Braschuk currently resides in Halifax. He is singing professionally for thousands of passengers every year on Carnival Cruise Line ships – "The World's Most Popular Cruise Line".

Eric Corne

Grammy award nominee, founder and President of Forty Below Records, Eric Corne is an award-winning producer, engineer and songwriter with multiple Billboard Blues #1 albums to his credit and a resume that includes recording the likes of John Mayall, Walter Trout, Joe Walsh, and Edgar Winter.

&

Lesley Wolman

Lesley began her career in her hometown of Winnipeg, performing in local theater and TV. Lesley attended the University of Toronto and graduated with a BS in Nursing. In addition to working as a nurse, Lesley was featured in film, TV and sang in numerous radio jingles. After being cast in the Broadway revival of Shenandoah, Lesley relocated to New York where she was also featured on the soap operas, "One Life To Live," and "All My Children." Lesley and her husband, entertainment business manager, Jeff Wolman, currently reside in Los Angeles, where she has recorded six albums, and performed her own cabaret shows throughout the U.S and Canada. Lesley's latest album, "The Great Canadian Songbook," was released in 2018, and her show continues to be performed.

Big Daddy Tazz

Often described as "one of the most talented comics in the business", mental health & children's advocate, Big Daddy Tazz has been delighting crowds at fundraisers, corporate events, festivals and on television for more than a decade & a half. Tazz is perhaps best known in his hometown as a tireless supporter of charities, including St. Boniface Hospital Foundation. His latest endeavour Tazzy Reads were he reads to kids of all ages twice a day on Facebook live, brings joy to children young & old, 100 episodes & counting are available on his youtube channel bigdaddytazz1