WINNIPEG – May 24, 2020 – Manitoba’s first-ever “virtual” gala fundraiser is sold out – thanks to ticket buyers hungry for fine dining and an exclusive concert in the comfort of their own homes.

“We’re simply thrilled with the response,” said Vince Barletta, President and CEO, St. Boniface Hospital Foundation. “The community has once again stepped up for patient care and medical research. We’re ever-thankful for their generosity.”

Announcing concert-only tickets

This Thursday (May 28) Rosé SoirIN features a home-delivered three-course meal and signature pairings from 529 Wellington and Piazza De Nardi, along with a stellar lineup of up-and-coming and established Canadian musicians. Winnipeg Free Press columnist Doug Speirs and CTV Morning Live anchor Nicole Dubé will co-host the evening’s program.

While Rosé SoirIN is at capacity for dining, you can get a ticket to catch the concert – if you act now. A concert-only ticket is $50, available at stbhf.ca or by calling 204-237-2067.
